Editorial publicada en Metal Magazine, The eternal sleep over, cuenta la vida fuera del instituto. La parte más melancólica de la adolescencia. Los pensamientos de futuro y la confusión del limbo que es esta etapa, quedan retratados en esta editorial, que pretende mostrar esa montaña rusa de emociones que supone el hacerse mayor, con una visión más dulce y romantizada de la adolescencia.

GCDS THE YEARBOOK

Propuesta de catalogo para GCDS, inspirada en los anuarios y en los diferentes estereotipos que supuestamente hay en los institutos. En este proyecto elegí algunos de estos personajes estereotipicos, y cree unos looks que fueran acorde con cada uno de ellos, intentando llevar a cada uno a su maxima expresión. Con una estética muy kitch y un poco creepy, he creado este yearbook como propuesta para mostrar la colección de GCDS 2020.

Catalog proposal for GCDS, inspired by yearbooks and the different stereotypes that supposedly exist in highschools. In this project I've chosen some of these stereotypical characters, and created some looks that were in accordance with each one of them, trying to bring each one to it's maximum expression. With a very kitch and slightly creepy aesthetic, I have created this yearbook as a proposal to showcase the GCDS 2020 collection.

Proposed ad for the high fashion brand Moschino, inspired by Cecilia's suicide in The Virgin Suicides, the idea for this project grew out of that feeling when you sit between two worlds, when you realize that you're still a girl in some ways, but you have ceased to be in others. Capturing a little aura of Lolita, this advertising proposal would be for the collaboration that Moschino made with Barbie.

Propuesta de anuncio para la marca Moschino, inspirado en el suicidio de Cecilia en The Virgin Suicides, la idea para este proyecto surgió de esa sensación cuando te sientes entre dos mundos, cuando te das cuenta de que sigues siendo una niña en algunos aspectos, pero ya has dejado de serlo en otros. Captando un poco un aura de Lolita, esta propuesta de publicidad sería para la colaboración que hizo Moschino con Barbie.

Editorial proposal for Office magazine, which continues with my depression series. In this shooting I wanted to represent the moment when you realize that you no longer want to feel that way, that you are tired of being in that situation, and you decide to “take charge of your life.” Being the reality that you are still feeling blue and depressed, you try to get out of your cave and return to the outside world. For this reason, all the colors, everything that surrounds the main character, is beautiful, but he still has his face covered, although some trait can be seen and he really tries to get out of there, but Whe still has a long way to go.

THE WAKE UP CALL ON THE DEPRESSION
SERIES

Propuesta de editorial para la revista Office, que continua con mi serie sobre la depresión. En este shooting quise representar el momento en el que te das cuenta de que ya no quieres estar mal, que estas harto de estar en esa situación, y decides “tomar las riendas de tu vida”. Siendo la realidad que sigues estando mal y deprimido, intentas salir de tu cueva y volver al mundo exterior. Por eso, todos los colores, todo lo que rodea al personaje principal, es bonito, pero sigue con la cara tapada, aunque se puede apreciar algun rasgo e intenta salir de ahi, todavia le queda un largo camino por recorrer.
