

The background of the entire image is a repeating pattern of red line-art flowers and leaves on a light beige, textured fabric-like surface. The flowers are stylized, with some showing detailed centers and others as buds. The leaves are simple, pointed shapes with vein details. The overall aesthetic is clean and modern.

A collection of fabric and color swatches on a wooden surface. On the left, there are several pieces of fabric: a white fabric with red and yellow floral patterns, a plain white fabric, a black fabric, and a white fabric with a hole. Below these are three circular color swatches: a red one, a dark grey one, and a light grey one. On the right, there are three rectangular color swatches: a white one, a yellow-green one, and a pink one. A small piece of paper with the handwritten text 'Saguarda' is visible at the bottom left.
