

inmost heart chronicle

thatton phinyophummin

Inmost heart chronicle is a fable story about my journey through my inner self, all sad and happy, some ugly and some so pretty.

It's weird, whimsical, and it does not make any sense.

I used to paint a lot and dream of becoming a painter, but suddenly everything is not like yesteryears anymore. I became so dull and bitter, but it was just a part of growing up.

"Farewell, farewell," said the swallow, with a heavy heart, as he left the warm countries, to fly back into Denmark. There he had a nest over the window of a house in which dwelt the writer of fairy tales. The swallow sang "Tweet, tweet," and from his song came the whole story."

— Hans Christian Andersen, Thumbelina
