MORE INFORMATION

The piece's attention to detail represents the history of the Maison in Place Vendôme, where Elsa Schiaparelli employed the most skilled craftsmen of the time to bring her surreal vision to life through design. As you can also appreciate the intertwined forms where reference is made to a spider overlaid with the stone.

Surrealist Hoops Leather Corset

2700 €

This corset is made of elastic black leather that acts like a second skin.

The neckline is outlined by cast gold shapes with surreal molded eyes, fully handcrafted pink and blue gold-plated flowers, and a cast gold nose brooch.

It is gracefully sculpted to the body.

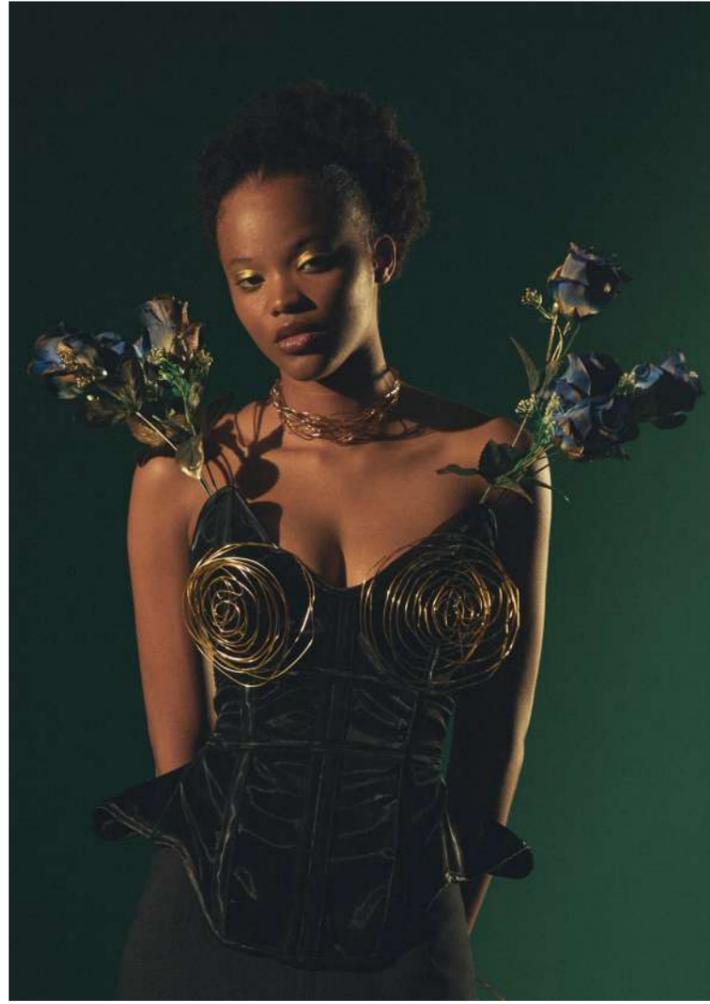

MORE INFORMATION

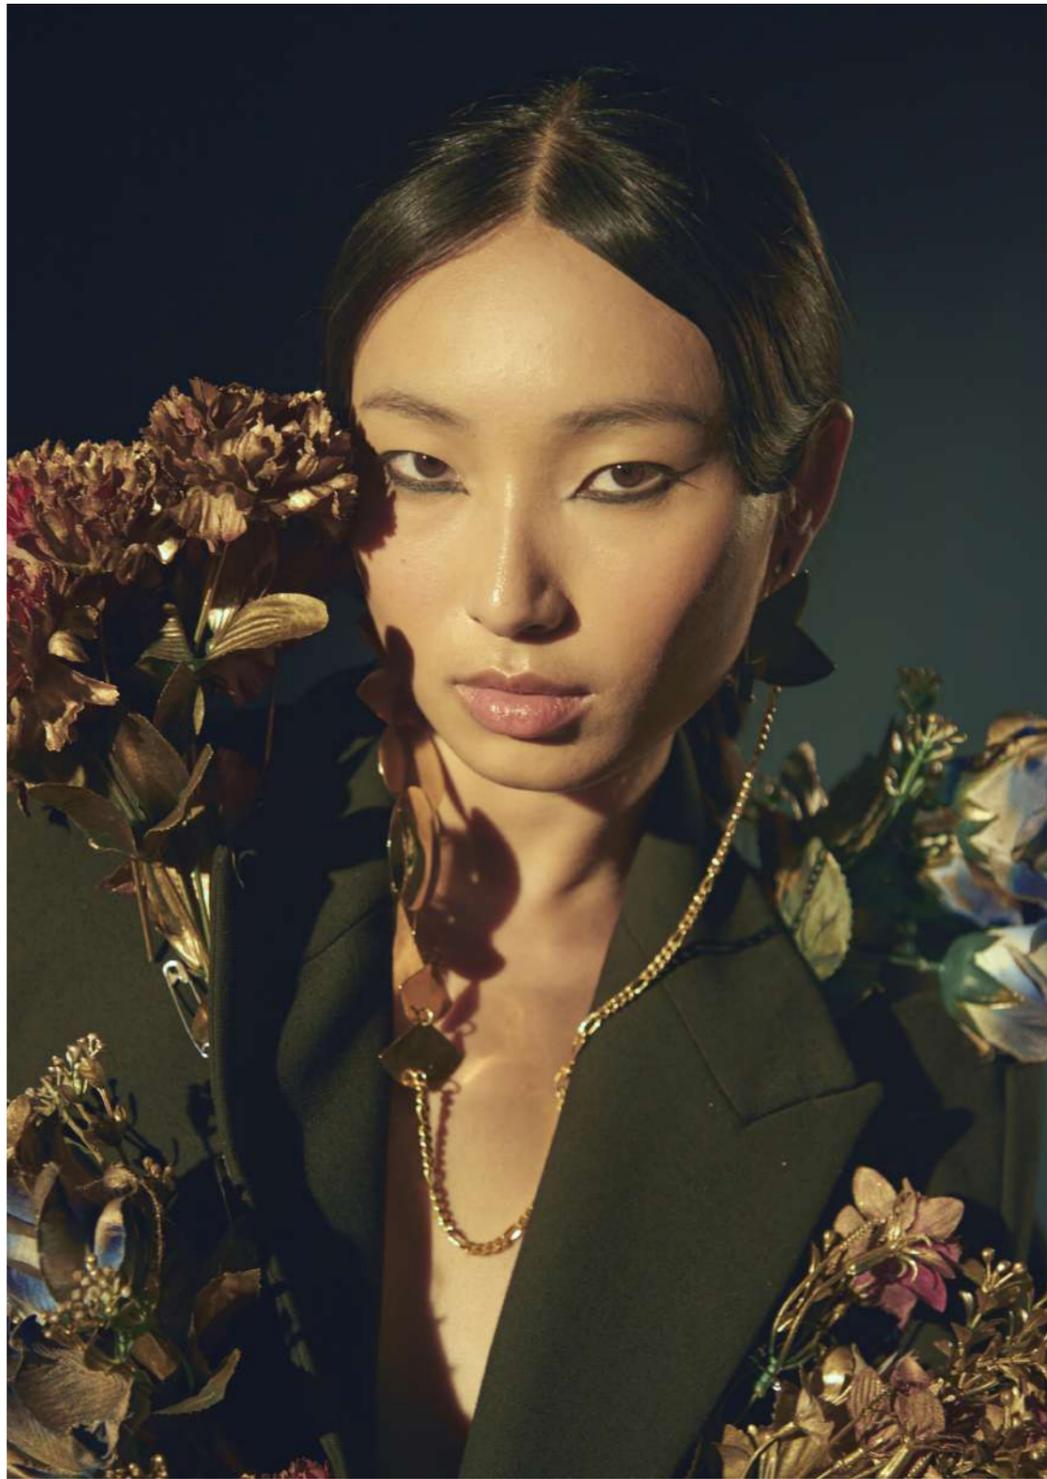

The surreal eyes and nose of this piece are a tribute to the ancient characters of the legends that inhabited the Amazon, designed for the Haute-Couture Winter 1937 collection.

SENSACIONES

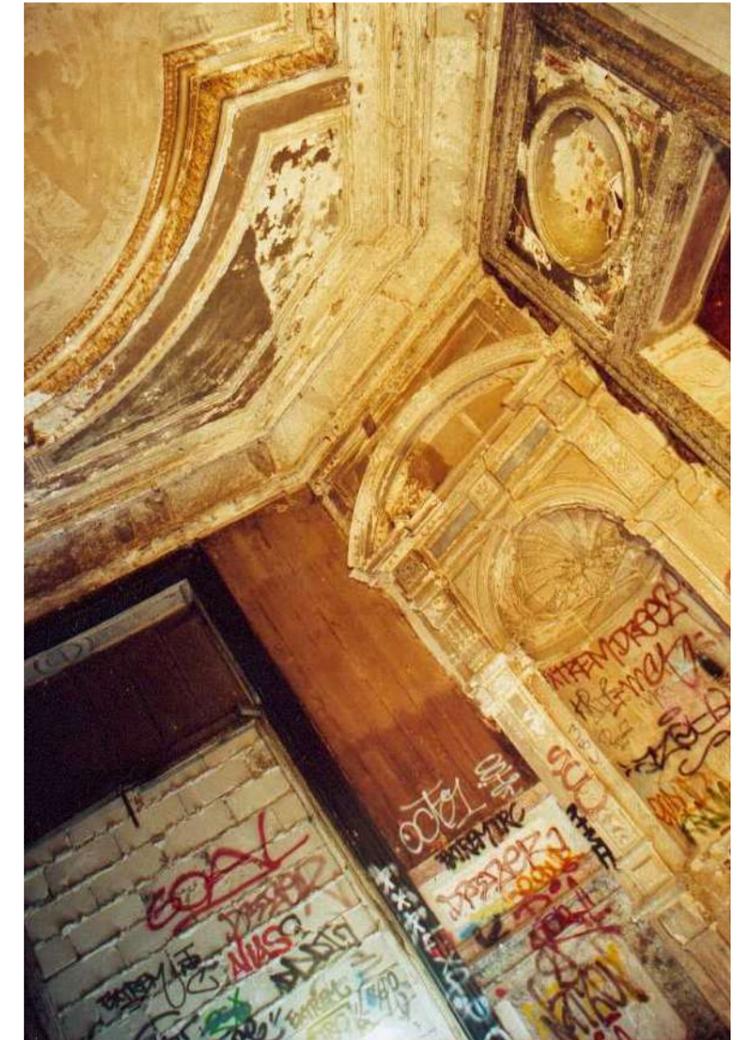

Se transmitirá una música de pájaros y sonidos de flora y fauna para dar una sensación de estar en la selva peruana. Algo así como una música relajante pero a la vez irá mas fuerte de poco a poco para dar esta sensación de que algo se está acercando. También se dará una sensación de calidez, gracias a las luces.

Estas hojas irán debajo del piso del runway a través de un vidrio y estarán llenas de agua.

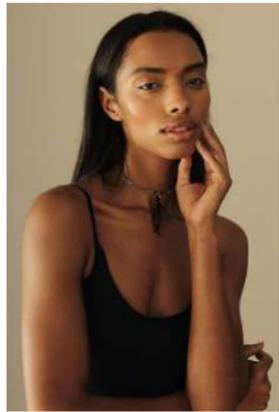

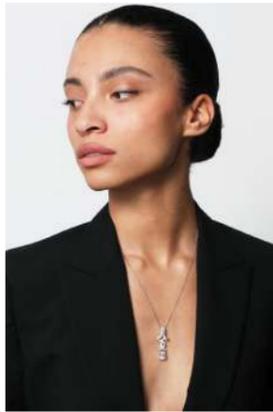

LOCALIZACIÓN

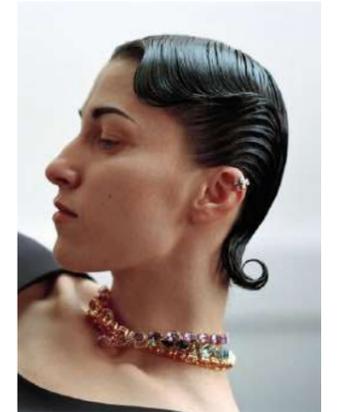

Localización, "La mansión abandonada de los Rothschild en París".

La propuesta como marca, es poder brindarle al público una experiencia en donde se puedan sentir en un lugar barroco, pero a la vez con toda la ambientación y decoración del runway, poder sentirse en dos mundos, darles una sensación de estar y no estar, de algo irreal.
